SAYS INVENTOR IS CRAZY.

Lawyer Spalckhaver Has George Spencer Held in Bellevne.

George Spencer, forty-one years old. an inventor, living at No. 161 East Twenty-third street, was admitted to the psychopathic ward of Believue Hospital to-day at the request of Lawyer William J. Spaickhaver of No. 71 Wall street, who said he thought the man was demented.

Spencer telephoned for Spaickhaver to visit him at his home. The lawyer, after talking with Spencer, came to the conclusion that he had suffered a mental breakdown, and persuaded him to ta + a taxicab ride. He hurried to Believus and turned Spencer over to Dr. Gregory. Overwork on a device he was trying to perfect is the reason as-
